LAWYERS ARGUED TO AN INKSTAND

Judgeless Trial Moves Appellate Division to Set Aside a Verdict.

Three judges of the Appellate Term of the Supreme Court-Guy, Page and Philbin-reversed yesterday the ver Philbin—reversed yesterday the verdict of a jury in a case in the City Court which had only half a judge, or, at least, a judge half of the time. During the trial of the case appealed Justice Richard T. Lynch was in the courtroom only about two hours of the four and a half it took to complete it. For the most of the time a court officer was practically in charge. Justice Lynch did not even hear the lawyers sum up to the jury, but the said court attendant did, and when the fifteen minutes allowed each side had expired. minutes allowed each side had expired this judicially delegated person shut off the oratory.
